October 18, 2005

Dear Mr. President,

Please accept my sincere appreciation of your warm congratulations on the occasion of the national holiday of the Republic of Tajikistan - the Independence Day.

I would like to assure you that our traditional friendly relations will continue to develop in the interests of the peoples of the two countries.

I take this chance to wish you, Mr. President, health, happiness and success, and peace and prosperity to the American people.
Sincerely yours,
Emomali Rahmonov
